

PRIZE/AWARD FORM

IRS rules require we file form 1099 for recipients of miscellaneous income, prizes and awards, payment for rents, royalties, fees and compensation for services rendered totaling $600 or more during a calendar year. Payment to vendors which are either incorporated, an exempt government agency or tax exempt organization will not require form 1099. Although you think your payments may not exceed $600, we would like to have your information on file in the event payments do exceed that amount. A 1099 will only be issued in the event that total payments equal $600 or more during the calendar year.

Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U. S. citizen or other U. S. person (defined below).

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the Certification, but you must provide your correct TIN.
